the next step in your career?

CONSISTENTLY
RANKED #1
FOR UNIVERSITY STUDENT EXPERIENCE

In 2019, 2018 and 2017, the Australian government's Quality Indicators for Learning and Teaching (QILT) Student Experience Survey ranked the University of Divinity #1, out of all universities in Australia.

This includes metrics such as learner engagement, teaching quality and student support.

Take the next step in your career

Prof. Albert Haddad

Leadership Program Director and Dean of Academic Programs

Leadership plays a pivotal role in guiding individuals, teams and organisations towards success and positive change.

Studying leadership will help you to gain valuable insights into effective decision-making, inspiring others and fostering collaboration. These skills are of paramount importance in today's complex and dynamic world.

The School of Professional Practice is launching a new national delivery of the Graduate Certificate in Leadership, with a focus on Organisational Leadership. Join participants from around Australia who are managing and supervising staff and departments in various faith-based agencies and organisations.

Graduate Certificate in Leadership

ORGANISATIONAL LEADERSHIP STREAM

About the program

Aimed at professionals who are already working in supervisory roles and for those who would like to advance their leadership and management career.

Designed with working professionals in-mind, the course will be delivered in a blended mode (online and on-site) to more easily fit around your work and personal commitments.

Units of study

Each unit will run for a 5-week period, that includes 4-weeks of teaching and 1-week in which you will complete an assignment for that unit.

Core units:

- Self-Leadership (LE8801Z)
- Leading Others (LE8802Z)
- Organisational Leadership (LE8803Z)

In addition, you will undertake short elective units choosing from: critical thinking and leadership formation; collaborative leadership; leading change; leading through challenges; confidence to lead; courage to lead; communication skills; balancing the budget; safeguarding; ethical leadership; managing conflict; building community; and more.

When to apply

- February, to commence study in Semester 1
- July, to commence study in Semester 2

National delivery

The course will be taught by the School of Professional Practice, with onsite delivery supported by Colleges of the University located in Adelaide in Brisbane.

Learning materials

All learning material including lectures, interviews, reading material and links to other referencing and learning resources, quizzes and activities will be available online via ARK the University's Learning Management System. The materials will be accessible at your convenience during each unit's teaching period.

Weekly webinars

Webinars will be held weekly on a mid-week evening. These sessions will allow you to meet with your tutor and other participants, discuss the learning material and prepare for assignments.

Day-long intensives

At the end of either the second or third week of each unit, a day long intensive will be held for all participants to gather for a face-to-face workshop, learning, and networking. Intensives will be held in different locations simultaneously, depending on the numbers of participants in the various national hubs. Hub locations include Melbourne, Adelaide, and Brisbane.

Assignments

Assignments are designed to help you put your learnings into practice.
