Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry

Reinvigorate for life, service and leadership through Higher Education Award courses at Eva Burrows College.

The Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry is designed to empower individuals in ministry with essential skills and knowledge for professional development.

Eva Burrows College offers a flexible online learning format which enables you to balance your studies with other activities.

To complete the Advanced Diploma in Theology and Ministry Award you are required to study 16 units.

This is made up of foundational units across all fields of study, with electives and advanced units in Biblical Studies, Christian Thought and History, and Mission and Ministry.

Providing flexibility for your life's circumstances, this award can be undertaken with two to eight years to complete it. If you are in full time ministry, a good approach is taking one unit a semester. This is a blended award of Christian Thought and practical units designed to meet real world issues through real ministry training that produces real ministry results.

Undergraduates are prepared for:

- ✓ the service of others
- ✓ communication of theological insights
- ✓ engagement in spiritual reflection

It's the first time I've studied (a course) completely online. I find it really works well. There is a lot of self-regulated study that can be done while working full-time.
