Graduate Diploma in Theology

Reinvigorate for life, service and leadership through Higher Education Award courses at Eva Burrows College.

Embark on a transformative educational experience that nurtures your passion for theology with the Graduate Diploma in Theology. This dynamic Award is designed to empower students to explore Christian thought and grow in faith.

Our Graduate Diploma in Theology provides you with the essential knowledge and skills to engage with Christian thought and traditions effectively. Gain a comprehensive understanding of theological sources, terms, and concepts, empowering you to articulate profound insights for Christian practice and identity.

Individuals with an undergraduate in other fields can start with this award which consists of six units from at least three disciplines.

We believe that theological education goes beyond the classroom. Through our program, you will develop invaluable research, analysis, and communication skills that apply not only to theological studies but also to various aspects of life and ministry. Enhance your ability to interpret texts within their historical and contemporary contexts, deepening your understanding of their implications and applications to real-world issues.

We understand that life's demands can differ for everyone. That's why we offer flexible study options for the Graduate Diploma in Theology. You can complete the program in just one year of full-time study or spread it out over three years on a part-time basis. This allows you to strike a balance between your educational goals and other commitments, making your theological journey accessible and achievable.

Upon completion of the Graduate Diploma in Theology, you will be equipped to apply theological knowledge to life and ministry. Take the first steps to embark on a transformative theological journey. Apply for the Graduate Diploma in Theology now and unlock a world of knowledge, growth, and endless possibilities.
