Master of Theological Studies

Reinvigorate for life, service and leadership through Higher Education Award courses at Eva Burrows College.

The Master of Theological Studies Award is designed for aspiring professionals seeking to deepen their engagement with select areas of study. This degree empowers you to apply an advanced body of knowledge in theology and its associated disciplines.

The Master of Theological Studies Award is:

- ✓ Broad and Deep. Enjoy a comprehensive education that broadens your knowledge and skills and develops a deepening faith and spirituality.
- ✓ Tailored to your needs. Benefit from a flexible structure that allows you to customise your learning experience.
- ✓ Suitable for Practitioners. Gain mastery of skills applicable to theology and mission and ministry practice.
- ✓ A pathway to new opportunities. Whether you want to be equipped for the next stage of ministry life or have a passion for research, this Award offers exciting pathways.

The program consists of foundational units in three disciplines from at least two fields, postgraduate elective units that align with your interests, and the option to choose between a capstone unit or a Minor Thesis. This tailored approach ensures that you acquire the knowledge and skills that align with your professional goals.

For those with a passion for research, the Master of Theological Studies offers an exciting pathway to higher degrees by research. By completing a Minor Thesis to a specified standard, you may be eligible for admission to advanced research programs, opening up new avenues for exploration and specialisation.

Don't miss this opportunity to elevate your expertise in theology. Apply for the Master of Theological Studies now and unlock a world of possibilities, professional growth, and lifelong learning.
