Undergraduate Certificate of Divinity

Reinvigorate for life, service and leadership through Higher Education Award courses at Eva Burrows College.

The Undergraduate Certificate in Divinity will keep you up to date with theological thought and will give you an edge in navigating complex ministry and leadership roles in life through developed skills. Eva Burrows College offers a flexible online learning format which enables you to balance your studies with other activities. Some of the beneficial outcomes include:

- ✓ Learning foundational concepts and knowledge of divinity
- ✓ Understanding how to apply this knowledge in many aspects of life
- ✓ Gaining basic skills to interpret texts and concepts

To complete the Undergraduate Certificate in Divinity Award you are required to study four units.

If you have been considering studying the Undergraduate Certificate in Divinity is a great starting place. This award will help you learn and apply the basics in the area that you want to study. Taking only one semester of full-time study or four semesters of part-time study to complete you can explore areas such as history, biblical studies, theology, mission and ministry, and spirituality. Alternatively, you can take units from various disciplines for a broad foundational exploration.

Graduates are prepared in skill development for the service of others through ministry leadership.

The Undergraduate Certificate of Divinity is a foundation for lifelong learning and provides a pathway to further undergraduate studies in divinity-related areas. All units are transferable to other University of Divinity undergraduate courses, such as Diploma of Theology, Bachelor of Ministry, Bachelor of Theology.

I wanted to go back to study because I was ready for a refresher. The subject matter is relevant no matter what you do with the Salvo's. Particularly spiritual formation - it is in everything we do.
